has been changed. The key screen is placed where the Starpower screen was the one. The Starpower screen is placed directly underneath it. New logo with Furcorn in the game displayed on it instead of Mammott 3D and Furcorn. For OS, the vorcorn is no three-dimensional and faces to the right. For Android, it seems that Furcorn is the original 3D furcorn only with his eyes looking in front instead adding an icon next to the coin display, consistent with the dawn of fire. The new startup screen. The Vorcorn also features an O-shape from the MSM word tag. New list breeding finished, but again. Now it also includes whenever you start breeding or send the born monster to the nursery. The placement of statues and wabline gives exactly 1. Used for not giving XP to this. Version 1.4.1 is coming soon in version 1.4.1, showing the new inventory thanks to our players' feedback, we've made some improvements to waking up Wublins! In this update: Add the button 'Zap it' to wublins' condensation statue list wublins inventory of the egg monster pile of the same mysterious entity gene behind these supernatural monsters is tirelessly toil in the workshop on new types of Wublins. What's more, the discovery of Raretherials means that there is a whole new set of monsters waiting to be collected! Stay tuned to get them all! Thanks for playing, the happy monster! Monster Processors detailed changes in this release: Released on May 7, 2016 Wublins inventory was improved. Sort more accurately than the number of eggs left. Here is a link to the details for this aspect. My singing monsters are upgraded game servers. All devices with iOS 5.0 no longer support this game, making the iPod 3 and iPad 1 no longer compatible with the game. However, other devices with iOS 5.0, such as iPod Touch 4, iPhone 3 and iPad 2, can be upgraded to iOS 6.0 or later. Link here. An improved news function, where pressing the news buton leads to a list of news, similar to the Fire Dawn format for the bulletin board. Added animations to collect daily login bonus bonuses. Coenage Carousel (102,500,000 coins), diamond scoop (18 diamonds) and grocery garage (2,992,000) were added to premium food items, possibly to fill the missing procurement gaps. For players who log in through anonymous login, deleting my singing monsters will lose all progress from their devices, even if they plan to reinstall the game. Link here. Version 1.4.0 New Map Art Facebook 1.4.0 Are you ready to wake Wublins? With the help of players from all over the world, scrolling in Blabbit revealed a modern island established! But while Plabet had hoped that this discovery had promised more eggs to borrow, it turned out that the eggs were supposed to be supposed to be snapped to Wuplin Island instead! Coursing with a supernatural element of electricity, is Wublins Stadium, a race of monsters like no other. You'll need to keep your wits about you and collect lots of eggs to wake these creatures in time. The rewards will be great - Wublins produce all kinds of currency and perform an exciting new song! New download screen in this update: Collect the first 5 Wublins: Brump, Zynth, Thwok, Poewk and Dwumroh! new map of the monster world! As well as the option to cancel any action. The option only appears when You unlock Wabline Island at Level 13; Otherwise it works how it does in previous versions. Increasing the zero ticket prize by watching the video changes the amount of the prize by twice the original amount. Watching videos to speed up breeding and incubation is more accurate reducing reproduction or incubation times by 15 minutes. The rare gast, being the first ever, was released on April 22, 2016. The permanent help button appears in all the natural islands in the lower buttons. Clicking the Help button will show all of the main instructions for how to play the game. Zuckier, another Wuplin, released on April 29, 2016. Version 1.3.8 and 1.3.9 (Android) Love Season 2016 Log Screen Egg-Stravaganza 2016 Sign-in Happy New Year's Screen! 2016 promises to be an exciting time, with new content and features in the works that will delve into the unexplored corners of the monster world. Meanwhile, there are always improvements to make bugs for aqush! In this update: Tribal leaders can now change the name of their tribe's invitations and tribal applications now serving the correct messages to solve other graphical and technical errors on the tribal island this release was released somewhere around January 26, 2016. If you still have got the version 1.3.7 during late January to early February, everything will still work as usual. Some other additions in this version include exclamation mark notifications added to the map and tribal buttons if there are any pending requests for the player's own tribe or someone else's tribe. Version 1.3.9 was released on March 1, 2016 in the Google Play Store, and contains most of the bug fixes. Version 1.3.7 logo in version 1.3.7 version 1.3.7 artwork on Facebook coming out of the portal through time and place, the rare Wubbox debuts on Plant Island in time for holidays! You'll need your rare source collection to meet this creature, even stock up on the Starpower of Tribal Island, and keep an eye out for your rare upgrades! Also in this update: Yool's seasonal return to the cold island is made more fun by the warm festive clothes of the heart of fellow monsters! Check back often for a new outfit! Graphical updates to the user interface bug fixes and improvements also included in this version, coins, diamonds and food currency numbers changed colors to their currency colors. The numbers that represent the coins turn dark gold, the diamond figures turns turquoise, to treat that is a pink ice donut, the fragments is purple, while the Star Power numbers are baby blue. Cold Island Christmas was still available again in version 1.3.6. During the version 1.3.7, 3D-esque Mammott and Furcorn have been worn in their respective costumes. Mammott wears a Santa hat, while Furcorn has Holly for papers. Version 1.3.6 Some elements featured in Starshop Version 1.3.6 Artwork Facebook Remember Star Power? Of course you do have been revealing the value of the real tribal currency – to be replaced in the all-new Star Shop available on the market! Spruce up your natural islands with all-new decorations and get rare monsters whenever - you'll be in need of them... What? There's more? You bet! Inspired by players' reviews, Star Power is now calculated based on your individual contributions and increases the number of members you have in your tribe. Improvements to the tribal menu, including the option to join random road tramble cooler level screens, including bug repair animations and also improvements from this update, whenever anything, from monster to decoration, are placed in a spot where they cannot be placed, will appear red, rather than the tile space that appears red. As it appeared it was a special Christmas. Yool became available and cold island was decorated in Christmas decorations. Version 1.3.5 Tribal Island featured in the Tribal Island Map game Change here! Just as the latest rare monsters have been revealed, this unusual new field originated in existence and ignited a new challenge for both novice and seasoned players. It is up to you to form a tribe with your friends and keep your monster well fed to upgrade your tribal, earn Starpower, and redeem tribal rewards. You can even unlock the ancient secret of the monster world! Also in this update: On popular demand, you can now sell monsters and decorations directly from hotel structures and storage! Bug fixes and improvements. This was the first version to be available on iOS and Android on the same day (August 6, 2015). Previous updates to iOS and Android were released a few days later. During this update, Memorial Month and Halloween special have been celebrated, even after the release of prequel of my singing monsters game, My Monsters Sign: Dawn of Fire. New costumes have been done on Halloween too. Version 1.3.4 startup with the release of rare mammott bug fixes and improvements. After the release of Rare Mamut, the startup list changed to include every natural monster to become a rare monster. The same menu also changed its background to include a background associated with rare... Version 1.3.3 new menu startup in the past, we see the light!
